Re: Appeal against the decision by the Minister for Agriculture, Food and the Marine to grant an Aquaculture Licence to Bantry Marine Research Station Ltd to cultivate various aquatic plants using longlines on the sub-tidal foreshore on site ref T05/640A adjacent to Dooneen Pier, along the north shore of Dunmanus Bay, Co. Cork

Dear Mr Cahill

I refer to the above Appeal received in the Aquaculture Licence Appeals Board (ALAB) on 22 December 2022.

A total of three (3) Notices of Appeal have been received in relation to the decision of the Minister. Pursuant to Section 42(1) of the Fisheries (Amendment) Act, 1997, (“hereinafter referred to as the Act”), the Board may, in its discretion, treat two or more appeals as, and the appellants as parties, to a single appeal. The Board has decided at this time to exercise that discretion and to consider all three appeals as a single appeal as they relate to the same aquaculture site. Please note that the Board, in its discretion, may at any time separate such appeals. In that event you will be notified accordingly.

In accordance with the requirements of Section 44(1) of the Act, I include copy of the other Notices of Appeal received. Copy of each of the Notices of Appeal is also available on the ALAB website under the relevant Schedule of Documents at the following link:

<https://www.alab.ie/appeals-open/cork/#d.en.167857>.

In accordance with the provisions of Section 44(2) of the Act, you may make submissions or observations in writing to the Board in relation to the appeal within a period of 30 days, beginning on the date on which a copy of the Notice of Appeal is sent to that party by the Board. Any submissions or observations received by the Board after the expiration of that period shall not be taken into consideration.

In this instance your reply, if any, should reach the Board at the above address not later than 9 March 2023.

Please note that you are not entitled to elaborate in writing on or make further submissions in writing in relation to the grounds of appeal stated in your Notice of Appeal or to submit further grounds of appeal, and any such elaboration, submissions or further grounds of appeal received by the Board shall not be considered by it. This is provided for in Section 41(3) of the Act.

Yours sincerely,

Margaret Carton
Secretary to the Board
