Re: Appeal against the decision of the Minister for Agriculture, Food and the Marine to refuse an Aquaculture and Foreshore Licences for the cultivation of Pacific Oysters using bags and trestles in Trawbreaga Bay, Co Donegal

Dear Michael and Eunan McLaughlin,

I refer to appeals against the decision of the Minister for Agriculture, Food and the Marine to refuse Aquaculture and Foreshore Licences for the cultivation of Pacific Oysters using bags and trestles on sites in Trawbreaga Bay, Co Donegal.

I enclose a copy of a Landscape and Visual Assessment Report dated 17 October 2017 (the Report) prepared by the Marine Engineering Division of the Department of Agriculture, Food, and the Marine (DAFM). This report has been provided to the Aquaculture Licences Appeals Board (ALAB) by DAFM as part of the Minister's file.

Section 46(1) of the Fisheries (Amendment) Act, 1997 (the Act) provides that the Board may, if it is of the opinion that, in the particular circumstances of an appeal, it is appropriate in the interests of justice to request a party who has made submissions or observations to the Board in relation to the appeal to make submissions or observations in relation to any matter which has arisen in relation to the appeal, it may serve on the party a notice requesting the party to submit submissions or observations in relation to the matter to the Board.

In accordance with the provisions of section 46(1)(a) of the Act, the ALAB Board HEREBY REQUIRE you to make any submissions or observations you have in relation to matters referred to in the Report to it, in particular any submissions or observations in relation to the Report's Findings and Conclusions. Such submissions or observations should be provided to the Board within 21 days of the date of this letter.

Please note that if the submission or observation is not received before the expiration of the period specified above, or such later period as may be agreed by the Board, the Board may, without further reference to you, determine the appeal.

Yours sincerely

Mary O'Hara
Secretary to the Board
