

naturally fresh – naturally on time

KUSH SHELLFISH

Kush Seafarms Limited,
Kenmare, County Kerry, Ireland

T: 00 353 (0)64 417 14

F: 00 353 (0)64 417 51

E: info@kush.ie

Ms Deirdre Fitzpatrick,
Aquaculture and Foreshore Management Division,
Department of Agriculture, Food and Marine,
An Larionad Bia Mara Naisúnta,
Cloch na Caoilte,
Corcaigh,

Friday June 8 2019

Ref site T06/179B and objections attached

Dear Ms. Fitzpatrick, In connection to your letter dated 20 May 2019 and the objections attached we have the following comments:

1. Objection by [REDACTED] on behalf of Shamrock Shellfish Ltd.

Kush Seafarms Ltd is fully paid up to date with regard to corporation tax, vat and PAYE. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] I am not in a position to make further comment at this time as the matter is [REDACTED]. I am not aware of any legal reason that the Minister can not issue a licence under The Fisheries Amendment Act 1997, [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] and confirm Kush Seafarms Ltds to be a very active company, creating significant employment and exports within the sector. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

2. Objection of Star Marine Ltd in relation to T06/179B.

The site in question has been operable since 1999, before Star Marina engaged in its business. The site is appropriately marked with St Andrews Crosses indicating the zone in use, as recommended by the Department engineer Mr. John O Keefe.

I trust that tis reply will assist you in your recommendations to the Minister in determining the licence decision.

Mise le Meas

John M Harrington M.D.